

Feels Like

Katchafire

Oh yeah
It feels like I was born to love you, (ooh hoo' yeah)
Like I was born to love you but I
I was scared to be
Sorry if I hurt anyone (mhm)
But when I saw you with my red eyes
Then time itself had gone

You were young & I was full of hope
Man it was hard and I could not cope
I made you leave
I made you leave
But see I always put my children first
A love so pure that sometimes it hurts
That's how I live
Oh that's how I live

Will our love shines
Will our love shines (yeah)
Let our love shiiiiiiines (mhhm)

It feels like I was born to love you (ooh hoo')
Like I was born to love you but I
I was scared to be
Sorry if I hurt anyone
But when I saw you with my red eyes
Then time itself had gone

The nations are all out
Cuz` I make all the people dance and shout
I make them sing (oooooh yaaaah)
(dance & shout, dance, dance & shout)
Listen baby
Every day that we were apart
You were in my mind you were in my heart
What does this mean ?
What does this mean ??

Will our love shine
Will our love shine (yeahh)

Let our love shiiiiine

It feels like I was born to love you (ooh hoo')

Like I was born to love you but I

I was scared to be

Sorry if I hurt anyone

But when I saw you with my red eyes

The time itself had gone

& time itself had gone
