There Is a Place

Morten Harket

Baby, there is a place for you and me
Sooner or later we shall see
Through the tears we cryAnd baby, our time has only just begun
We are different, we are one
What more do we needThere's a silent world
Shining from afar
There's a drop of life
Among the stars
That is where we humans are
Put your darker thoughts aside
Lay back in my arms tonight
Everything is rightAnd join me
All the things that we will see
Soon will turn to memories
We better stay awake
Every morning brakes
And, there's a silent world
Shining from afar
Just a drop of life
Among the stars
That is where we humans are
