Nile (Throwing Snow Remix)

Douglas Dare

Through blades of grass
I saw you stand
And lose balance
But I could not, read your headSo I sat, and waited
And held my mouth
So I could love you without distracting soundsI, I'd sail down the river Nile,
Just to keep you alive and wellI'm lost, within
My world of sins
With all you touch
But I can not confessI, I'd sail down the river Nile,
But the truth couldn't help you nowCouldn't help you
Couldn't help you nowCouldn't help you
Couldn't help you nowCouldn't help you
Couldn't help you now
