Daylight Dancer

Lacuna Coil

Answer me, it cant be so hard.
Cry to relieve what's in your heart.
Desolation, grief and agony.
Trying to move
down in this grave.
Trying to believe in every faith
as another bridge to clarity.
Want to stay another way.
Take another chance
to find a distant sanity
and turn your pain into truth.
Take another chance
to fight a different enemy
and set it free.

Dance with me,
It cant be so hard
Time to reveal
whats in your heart.
Desolation
grief and agony.
Walking through a life decayed
while your repeating
your mistakes.
Theres another chance to try to get away.
Take another chance
to find a distant sanity
and turn your pain into truth.
take another chance
to fight a different enemy
and try to free it.
