

Curious White Boy

Cree Summer

Politically erect, romanticizing 'bout ancestral innocence
Conscience easing curiosity pleasing, slum teasing
Lab rat is crude ego food, ain't no Afro or halo
Can pick the cotton out your conscience Inside the petting zoo
(Was it good for you?)
Can't hide me in dark night places
(Cause in the spaces)
Curious is the luxury
(To be wrong)

White wrong still belong, all my jungle come out Curious white boy, when am I gonna meet your mama?
(Met your daddy already)

Curious white boy, when am I gonna meet your mama?
(Met your daddy already) Another housekeeper fantasy Afrodite
Coffee colored remedy for yo hangover from history
I know your daddy and your brother too well
And his friends made me swear I wouldn't tell Inside the petting zoo
(Was it good for you?)
Can't hide me in dark night places
(Cause in the spaces)
Curious is the luxury
(To be wrong)

White wrong still belong, all my jungle come out Curious white boy, when am I gonna meet your mama?
(Met your daddy already)

Curious white boy, when am I gonna meet your mama?
(Met your daddy already) What you so mad about?
Always gotta scream and shout
Find a difference, point it out
Spread your legs, shut your mouth My virginity hanging from your family tree
Why you're so angry?

They just crowned mammy, Miss America Curious white boy, when am I gonna meet your mama?
(Met your daddy already)

Curious white boy, when am I gonna meet your mama?
(Met your daddy already) Curious white boy, when am I gonna meet your mama?
(Met your daddy already)

Curious white boy, when am I gonna meet your mama?
(Met your daddy already) Curious white boy, when am I gonna meet your mama?
(Met your daddy already)

Curious white boy, when am I gonna meet your mama?
(Met your daddy already)
