Maybe

Oh Gravity

Maybe itâ€™s the way you slammed the door
The echo of the rain on the hardwood floor
But I canâ€™t sleep now thatâ€™s for sure
Maybe itâ€™s the way we used to sing
Those last notes left my ears a ring
I still hear them thatâ€™s the thing

Maybe itâ€™s the way we used to be
That stains my mind and haunts me
One too many days away from home
You can come back again and feel alone
I could come back again youâ€™d still be gone

Maybe itâ€™s the way we hang on hope
That things never change but we both know
Whatâ€™s really worth it if they donâ€™t?
Maybe itâ€™s the day we finally give
These hearts up to break and face the risk
Itâ€™s the safest of places no one is

Maybe itâ€™s the way we used to be
That stains my mind and haunts me
One too many days away from home
You can come back again and feel alone
I could come back again youâ€™d still be gone

Walk through again and take your time
Dark rooms, cobwebs, the half-closed blinds
Remember when it shined in the light

Maybe itâ€™s the way we used to be
That stains my mind and haunts me
One too many days away from home
You can come back again and feel alone
You can come back again and still be gone

Maybe itâ€™s the way you slammed the door
The echo of the rain on the hardwood floor
I canâ€™t sleep now thatâ€™s for sure

Lyrics Submitted by Ricky

Lyrics provided by https://damnlyrics.com/