Beautiful Lie

Yoav

Yesterday, today, tomorrow
Fade away like frozen photographs
Remember, forget
The stakes, the ways you take
The ways you make the moments passForever regret, I tell a beautiful lie
And I would die if you find out
I tell a beautiful lie
Every time that I did not open up my mouthAll the same, its a game, its a play, its a war
Its a shame that were always fighting for
I dont mean to cast no blame
I dont intend to pretend
I can never loved you moreBut in the blink of an eye
Everything you ever knew can change
And its a beautiful lie
If you think everything will always stay the sameBabe, my babe
You got a secret, its starting to show
My babe, sweet lady
How long can you keep it?
How far would you go?You tell a beautiful lie
You tell a beautiful lie
And its going to
Its going to drive you crazyBabe, my babe
Its starting to show
My babe, sweet babe
How far would you go, go, go
To tell a beautifulYesterday, today, tomorrow
Fade away like frozen photographs
Remember, forget, forever lie, lie, lie
Beautiful lie, yeah
