

Frayed nerves

Xtrunk

Another blood injected
To join a line infected
Burying euphoria with one blink
And changing the color of our ink I will not be the sheep in your flock
You've put your entirety on the block
Such a river against the grain
Crushing any movement You want to crave the pain
You have rewrote the shame
Greeting avidity, greeting stupidity A rust blade running on my tongue You want to crave the pain
You have rewrote the shame
The scars of gall are carved on the wall A rust blade running on my tongue You can't pull strings to feel superior
And have a really vicious behavior
I wanna pick up my destiny
To live in harmony Time cauterizes injury
But still remains the fury
Such a lethal attack
You're off the beaten track
