

The Funny Bird (Live Version)

Mercury Rev

Well goodbye southern spy
I've come t' love you in th' lite
Always starin' in th' Void
Have yr etes all been destroyed All these diggin' little hands
Of all the stones that never had
Yr the only one I know...
An' farewell gold'n ring Oh you hollow little thing
Like a wave along th' coast
I've come t' love th' hi's and lows
When in th' end yr just a band A funny bird that never lands
An' yr th' only one I know
Farewell gold'n sound
No one wants to hear you now
