

Ain't No Rhyme

Jake Bugg

Keep pop, keep poppin' and listen slow
Trying to picture this but still nobody knows
Where the people's ladies quit but still they never grow
Where the man keep bluffin' toe to toe
A place where your friends they go just to blow
Ready to own soon as they made a bit of dough
Can't really blame 'em for the life that they chose
Cause I knew that all of them were in the same bowl
This ain't no rhyme
Enough bluesy where the edge should be seen
Never heard anything about 'em on the TV
Only Bobby who told where the tax pay a vid
Oh, and the corporation greed
We live in a world of vulturous things
Where you can't just wind up the faith on mainstream
And when you're in the middle, what side do you lean?
I must say it's hard to be in the between
This ain't no rhyme
I understand that it must be a hard life
I know what I'm looking at I can't supervize
Patronizing would try to give you advice
The man Curtis is "just hook down the knife"
I knew from his eyes he was a gonna do twice
Put your mask on before committing crimes
This kid needs to think about time inside
Cause a dagger to the heart comes at a price
This ain't no rhyme
Keep pop, keep poppin' and listen slow
Trying to picture this but still nobody knows
Where the people age quick but still they never grow
Where the men keep bluffing till they're toe to toe
A place where your friends they go just to blow
Ready to own soon as they made a bit of dough
Can't really blame 'em for the life that they chose
Cause I knew that all of them were in the same boat
It sounds like a place that you don't wanna go
But this is the place that I call home
This ain't no rhyme
