

To Find a Heart (Acoustic Unplugged)

Big Kenny

Lord knows I ain't perfect,
I make my share of mistakes,
You fall down,
You get back up,
You do whatever it takes,
Life don't come so easy,
Ain't no handbook,
Ain't no map You count on your own,
In the great unknown,
And there ain't no turnin' back And if you get lucky,
You just might fall in love,
When it hurts so bad,
That's when you know it's real,
Till it's worth the pain,
You're just walkin' in the dark,
That's what it takes to find a heart Everybodys searchin',
But they seldom look within,
Find the key,
Unlock the door,
And let emotions in It's the only thing that matters,
But it's the hardest thing of all,
To lay down your pride,
Try to hide,
Behind some silly wall And if you get lucky,
You just might fall in love,
When it hurts so bad,
That's when you know it's real,
Till it's worth the pain,
You're just walkin' in the dark,
That's what it takes to find a heart And if you get lucky,
And you just might fall in love,
And when it hurts like Hell,
That's when you know it's real,
And till it's worth the pain,
You're just walkin' in the dark,
That's what it takes,
That's what it takes to find,
That's what it takes to find, a heart
