

21st Century Kid

Jamie Cullum

There's maybe a way I can tell you
'Cause with everyday things continue
To get more compromised so who will fantasize
    A new generation politicized
    When things are done in our own name
        Are we as much to blame?
    Now it's become clear to me but only lately
        The ground is removed underneath
    Shout it from the brink, you're louder than you think
    21st century kid is surrounded by illusion and confusion
    So maybe if you're holding out for the truth now
        Could it be the greatest weapon?
    Could it be the greatest weapon? Your weapon
        Nothing is certain except a memory
        That's soon washed away by the low sea
    Now sit yourself down my one and see what you've become Ignoring a smouldering gun
    White dove's flown, you think we're on our own
    21st century kid is surrounded by illusion and confusion
    So maybe if you're holding out for the truth now
        Could it be the greatest weapon?
    21st century kid is surrounded by illusion and confusion
    So maybe if you're holding out for the truth now
        Could it be the greatest weapon?
    Could it be the greatest weapon? Your weapon
