Wall Of Sound

American Hi-fi

It don't mean nothing
When you say it's gonna be alright
'Cause you'll tell me anything I wanna hear
And it don't mean nothing
When you laugh at my jokes
'Cause it's all or nothing when I fall apart
Fade, fade
Fade into you
You're under my skin now
I could shut out the world that we know
I'll try to be everything you want me to be
And I've got a head start
But I'm making the same mistakes
'Cause it's all or nothing when I fall apart
Fade, fade
Fade into you
Caught in the rush of the crowd
Lost in a wall of sound
You were ringing in my ear
Caught in the rush of the crowd
Lost in a wall of sound
You were ringing in my ear, my ear
Fade, fade
Fade, fade
Caught in the rush of the crowd
Lost in a wall of sound
You were ringing in my ear
Caught in the rush of the crowd
Lost in a wall of sound
You were ringing in my ear
Caught in the rush of the crowd
Lost in a wall of sound
You were ringing in my ear
