Losing You

Big Dismal

Your persuasion has lead me here
The lies you told me were sincere
I never wanted to second guess it
It seems so real, how was I to know how you feel?So I'll sleep alone
Even if I know it's hard to watch you go
'Cause there's something that I must do
Even if I know it meansAll this time I took for granted
Always relied on second chances
Now my luck is finally running out
I'm so tired of always living in this shadow of doubtSo I'll sleep alone
Even if I know it's hard to watch you go
'Cause there's something that I must do
Even if I know it means losing youFly away, don't be afraid
Never forget the memories that we made
All these times between us
Just close your eyes, I'll be thereSo I'll sleep alone
Even if I know it's hard to watch you go
'Cause there's something that I must do
Even if I know it means losing you
