One Day

Trading Yesterday

If I could change the currents of our lives to make the river flow where it's ran dry
to be a prodigal of father time then I would see you tonightIf I could find the years that went away destoying all the cruelty of fate I must believe that love will find a way tonightChorus
Lonely finds me
One day you will come
But I'll wait for love's sake
One day to me, loveIf I could see beyond the here and now if you could hear me calling you somehow if I could know that love is reaching out to find you with me tonightThen hope could make these promises come true Beyond what I coyld say, what love can do With every moment leading me to you tonightChorus
Lonely finds me
One day you will come
But I'll wait for love's sake
One day to me, loveI could stay forever here until that one day comes praying time will bring you here, I'll wait for your loveIf I could change the currents of our lives
to make the river flow where it's ran dry
to be a prodigal of father time then I would see you tonightLonely finds me
One day you will come
But I'll wait for love's sake
One day to me, love
One day to me, love
One day to me, loveI will stay forever here, I'll wait for your love.
