running after you

Sunsplit

Yeah!Yeah!Yeah!
Your Word is a light unto my path
Your Love guides me through my darkest night
And even though sometimes Your ways
I cannot understand
Ill never walk away because my futures
In Your hands

I dont care what people will say
Im running after You
I wont turn back and go their way
Coz Im running after You
Yeah Im running after You
Im running after You
(I will run to You)

I dont care what people will say
Im running after You
I wont turn back and go their way
Coz Im running after You
Dont matter what may come my way
Im running after you
Its You Im following today
Im running after You

Im running after You
