Riding the Snake

Testament

Caged and riding the snake Straight down from the night True love for the fix and she never been able one minute to kick back the feelings enticed and you know it's never the same Venomous poison constricting your lifeLife... enough of the taste
Sweet demonic night
Raised up on her legs
Every time you encounter the demon
Your future forever is lost While riding the snake who suffers the lossIs there no shame Is life so bad without you...
So far away and I still can't fight you!!!Climb straight into the veins Ran into the cell Straight up to the snake and it never will ever beHiding from futures of innocence lost
Will we ever escape the clinch of the jawsDrowning in pools filled with lies Filled in with pain
Watch how the serpent survives...
Simmering hate!!!Caged and riding the snake Love loss for the fix bit down on the snake Fates sending her back
No place to go
She will never change her ways Spent to many nights and can not take raw emotions from othersDrowning in pools filled with lies Condemned in pain
Watch how the serpent survives...
Simmering hate!!!
