

All I've Ever Needed

AJ Michalka

Honestly,
It's time for honesty,
My heart is on my sleeve,
Oh will you hear me out.

I've got nothing left to give of me,
I gave up everything so there, is nothing left to lose,
For me now.
Would you forgive me somehow?

I chased a million things,
Bright lights and empty dreams,
Now here I am,
Right where I thought I, wanted to be,
I'd trade it all right now,
Leave it all and lay it down,
To get back where I belong,
Lord all I've ever needed was your love.

Truth be told,
I've made this world my hope,
and let it steal my soul,
but now I want it back.
Cause all I need is waiting,
In your arms,
A place to hang my heart,
Where I am known at last,
You're the one true thing I have.

I chased a million things,
Bright lights and empty dreams,
Now here I am,
Right where I thought I, wanted to be,
I'd trade it all right now,
Leave it all and lay it down,
To get back where I belong,
Lord all I've ever needed was your love.
And I know that I was meant to be,
More than just a melody,
I know that you had hopes for me,

I hope you still believe in, me.

I chased a million things,
Bright lights and empty dreams,
Now here I am,
Right where I thought I, wanted to be,
Iâ€™d trade it all right now,
Leave it all and lay it down,
To get back where I belong,
Lord all Iâ€™ve ever needed was your love.
Lord all Iâ€™ve ever needed was your love.
