Quote, you are my soul unquote
Now does that sound familiar?
Kiss the boy and make him feel this wayQuote, well this is me unquote
You have been so ugly your entire life
So why change now?Is this how you wanna go down right before my eyes?
You're the saddest sight I know
You're quiet you never make a sound
But here inside my mind you are the loudest one I knowQuote, we never talk unquote
And that's when I don't answer
But don't you dare ask why
Because you don't want to knowQuote, well woe is me unquote
How different I've become
And no one understands
My dear, no one really caresIs this how you wanna go down right before my eyes?
You are the saddest sight I know
And you're quiet you never make a sound
But here inside my mind you are the loudest one I knowAnd you were right, right from the start
It took everything you had but you finally broke myAnd now the old flames will pass away
I saw your light once, did you see mine?
But not all things will pass awayYou turned your light off, so I turned mine
Away from your sadness
Away from the nothing that you feel for meIs this how you wanna go down right before my eyes?
You are the saddest sight I know
You're so quiet and you never make a sound
But here inside my mind you are the loudest one I knowAnd you were right, right from the start
It took everything you had but you finally broke myQuote hey, listen 'cause I'll only say this once
I finally found the words that mean enough to me
Goodbye my soul, unquote
