Silver Lady

Martin Gallop

Tired of drifting, searching, shifting from town to town
Every time I slip and slide a little further down
I can't blame you if you won't take me back
After everything I put you through
But honey you're my last hope
And who else can I turn to?Come on Silver Lady take my word
I won't run out on you again believe me
Oh, I've seen the light
It's just one long fight
Without you
Here I am a million miles from home
The Indiana wind and rain cut through me
I'm lost and alone, chilled to the bone
Silver LadyDouble talkers, backstreet walkers at every turn
Seedy motels and no star motels still I had to learn
That the one shining thing in my mind
Was the sweet love I had with you
And honey you're my last hope
And who else can I turn to?Come on Silver Lady take my word
I won't run out on you again believe me
Oh, I've seen the light
It's just one long fight
Without you
Here I am a million miles from home
The Indiana wind and rain cut through me
I'm lost and alone, chilled to the bone
Silver LadyCan't you find it in you to forgive me
Cause here I am a million miles from home
The Indiana wind and rain cut through me
I'm lost and alone, chilled to the bone
Silver LadyCome on Silver Lady take my word
I won't run out on you again believe me
Oh, I've seen the light
It's just one long fight
Without you
Here I am a million miles from home
The Indiana wind and rain cut through me
I'm lost and alone, chilled to the bone
Silver Lady
