

Stars Align

Lindsey Stirling

You know this better than I can explain
I lived it
Was lost and now I'm moving on
You wake up
Realize the dream
I feel that our luck is now coming on

See the stars align
And you know it's all for you
Down were you before
Now you come alive for this
There's calm inside the storm
If you know just what you're trying for
See what you could be
And you know you shine for me
Why not now?

Remember how we saw it to be
I still see it
Still time enough for me
I see it shining
Can almost touch it
You can taste it in the air
