

Change Is On the Way

Shawn Colvin

Cold nights, warm hands
Mountains, flat lands
Your face
Nothing gets erased
And I feel like a change is on the way Once you held my hand
Wasn't long I saw you drift like sand
I guess nothing
Nothing stays the same
And I feel like a change is on the way Well I fought so hard
Made myself a fool
Like a child I held my breath
Till I was blue
You left me anyway
You could feel a change was on the way Every sin you confess
The measure of every breath
Rise and fall and then rest
For awhile
