All Of My Tears

Spiritualized

Lord it's so hot I ain't got a lot
Don't need much but ain't satisfied right now
Just want water, just want an ocean
An endless river to wash away all of my tears
Lord it's so hot my heart's bleeding
Ain't been with you but it's you I'm needing right now
Just want water, just want an ocean
An endless river to wash away all of my tears
When you're hot Lord how it's steaming
You gotta go back to the river babe
Just want water, just want an ocean
Endless river to take me back to my shame, shame
