

Fascinate Me

Choir Vandals

close the door, turn off the lights you have been to the wild silence is my long-lost friend and has been since I was a child yet, your tongue still moves so fast you're a critiquer tonight I'm gonna rock my world

fascinate me
now your baby
fascinate me
oh I know you're up to no good who am I learn to fly when my feet touch the ground don't even know where I would want to go but I know I don't wanna be here right now my baby took me to the bottom of the ocean just to show me around she said, "just keep swimming down" now she's nowhere to be found

fascinate me
motivate me
fascinate me
oh you're up to no good my heart it takes us to the bottom of the ocean floor, floor I wanna destroy everything that i could ever deserve I guess I'll never learn.

oh no, I guess I should have known (x2)
