

Get It Like You Like It

Ben Harper

Throw your hands up to the sky
And scream out loud, "I'm free"
'Cause wrong is the new right so we can cut loose tonight
It costs a lot to look this cheap So get it like you like it
Get it like you like it
Get it like you like it
Get it like you like it Fire makes it burn and water makes it turn
We must still be here living on earth
They keep telling me Jesus walked on water
Well, He should've surfed Now get it like you like it
Get it like you like it
Get it like you like it
Get it like you like it In 1918 the Great Bambino
Kicked a piano into Willis Pond
But Johnny Damon swung a bat, grand slam that was that
An 86 year curse is gone Just like you like it
Get it like you like it
Get it like you like it
Get it like you like it Now throw your hands up to the sky
And scream, scream, "I'm not alone"
Is it irony or fate, don't become what you hate
We've all got stardust in our bones Just like you like it
Get it like you like it
Get it like you like it
You got to get it like you like it Get it like you like it
Oh, just, just, just like you like it
Get it like you like it
Just like you like it Get it like you like it
