Fade Away

Manila

Teardrops still fade away,
And my crying eyes will now see clear
The voice inside me afflicted all day,
'Cause of loneliness I fear.

All the times we've been together,
All the ways that we have gone
For my love - I can remember -,
My feelings once were strong.

And until this struggle's over,
I will keep my eyes off you
I'll finally see the signs, defeat the time,
To end my love to you - it's true.

You came and changed my heartbeat,
Made my life whole and complete
But the very next day you went away,
You just didn't want to stay.

And in the end I won't cry for you, honey,
Though you are now apart from me
And the voice insine me afflicted all day,
Once it said that you're my dear.

And right back in the days when you wanted to leave,
Instead of holding you ended the love to me
(You betrayed me when i needed your heart.)

And until this struggle's over,
I will keep my eyes off you
I'll finaly see the signs, defeat the time,
To end my love to you - it's true.

You came and changed my heartbeat,
Made my life whole and complete
But the very next day you went away,
You just didn't want to stay.
