

Scalpel

Sandrider

Road narrows, pouring down
I'm breaking without a sound
    Bits and pieces of trying
Get what you pay for, nothingFrozen dreaming of yesterday
    Potent creeping, I'm far away
    From my hometown, I lit out
To save my skin and shed some doubtI know how false the floor
    How high the sky
    Been down that road beforeIt's a lie, you hide in someone else
    Like a shining scalpel cut yourselfHard as truth is been my friend
    Don't need to be invited in
    I'll go 'round till bested
Pick up myself and try againI know how false the floor
    How high the sky
    Been down that road beforeIt's a lie, you hide in someone else
    Like a shining scalpel cut yourselfAll comes in time
    Don't fight it, don't mind it
    Whatever may comeI know how false the floor
    How high the sky
    Been down both roads beforeIt's a lie, you hide in someone else
    Like a shining scalpel cut yourself
