

Consider This

Anna Nalick

I've tripped again and things are startin' to get interestin'
Don't give me choices 'cause I can't decide
My mind is soaked in words
I've come to terms with all my insecurities and purities no friend of mine
And dreamin' doesn't do no good 'cause I don't wanna lie
That I'm okay and I'm alright, I'd rather take it and forget it
Consider this a warning 'Cause I'll start another fight and you'll say, "It's all alright"
I'll wait for the day when you find, I'm too much for you, baby
So lay your hands over me and feel what you only see
But don't bother wastin' your time if you're tryin' to change me
You're kinda cool but I know better than to break the rules
Of messin' with a lesson that I'll never learn
I'll go from bad to worse and later back to better
But I'll never better bridges that I'm bent to burn
And dreamin' doesn't do no good 'cause I don't wanna lie
That I'm okay and I'm alright, I'd rather take it and forget it
Consider this a warning 'Cause I'll start another fight and you'll say, "It's all alright"
I'll wait for the day when you find, I'm too much for you, baby
So lay your hands over me and feel what you only see
But don't bother wastin' your time if you're tryin' to change me
This is a warning
This is a warning
This is your warning
Dreaming doesn't do no good 'cause I don't wanna lie
That I'm okay and I'm alright, I'd rather take it and forget it
Consider this a warning 'Cause I'll start another fight and you'll say, "It's all alright"
I'll wait for the day when you find, I'm too much for you, baby
So lay those hands over me and feel what you only see
But don't bother wastin' your time if you're tryin' to change me
If you're tryin' to change me, if you're tryin' to change me
