Sugar

Tonic

Come on baby get your shoes on
You're looking like you need a rescue
Underneath the southern moonlight
Where only I can find you
We can do it with our eyes closed
We can sit and talk for hours
Underneath the golden flowers
Where my sunshine grows
Sugar my love
Sugar my burn
Sugar may hide
Sugar may learn
I could give a thousand reasons
I could live a thousand lives
I know I would always meet you
Underneath a summer sky
So come on tell me love is glory
Come on tell me love is real
Show me what your heart is made of Show me what I need to feel
Sugar my love
Sugar my burn
Sugar may hide
Sugar may learn
Show me that love is worth the wait
Tell me I'm right
Give me your love don't hesitate
Show me tonight
I waited so long for a love so true
So I'm giving it all right back to you
I'm giving you my best of silver
I'm giving you my best of gold
Sugar may hide
Sugar may burn
So come on baby get those shoes on
We can run away from here
Talk about a life we're starting
We can start it all right here
Show me that love is worth the wait

Tell me I'm right
Give me your love don't hesitate
Show me tonight
Sugar my
Sugar my
Sugar my
