

Your Body (DJ Mshega's Spruitview Mix)

Mi Casa

You don't say much but I hear it all
Dripping with beauty like a waterfall
I see you approaching
I abide by the law
That's right
I treat you like a stop sign
Look right
Look left
Look left again
Oh now
There she goes
Oh I
Can't believe this sight
Sex appeal defined
Right before my eyes
Too unreal for me
Pinch myself to see
Could this be
Your body (Your body)
Says a thousand words (your body)
And your body, body, body
Girl, I don't deserve
To get you out of my mind is a job on its own
Like the river flow your current's too, too strong
Now
Like a drug you take on over me
I treat you like medicine
The more I take
The better I feel
Oh now
There she goes
Oh I
Can't believe this sight
Sex appeal defined
Right before my eyes
Too unreal for me
Pinch myself to see

Could this be
Your body (Your body)
Says a thousand words (your body)
And your body, body, body
Girl, I don't deserve
Your body (Your body)
Says a thousand words (your body)
And your body, body, body
Girl, I don't deserve
Oh, your body!
