I try to feel the sunshine while standing in the rain
(In the rain)
You try to hold me down with all your restrain
(Your restrain)

(Your restrain)
I try to feel the sunshine while standing in the rain
(In the rain)
You try to hold me down with all your restrain
(Your restrain)(Verse 1)
Im the greatest escape artist the hardest situation is getting free
From the terror that keeps confiding in me,
I got to be Better than Houdini and David Blaine
With no magician, No illusions, No subliminal, No hypnosis to your brain, Im untrained Children should not try this at home at all, Im a free lance professional
And this is on my own I staged the whole bit
I drink and talk a little shit and see who got the balls to pull a strap
And really use it, Thats where the fun comes in Cause after they pop me they got to hide my body
So no ones suspicious about who shoot me
Its interesting me to see the means and the tactics and tape
To make sure that my death is tucked away nice and safe(Hook)
I try to feel the sunshine while standing in the rain
(In the rain)
You try to hold me down with all your restrain
(Your restrain)
I try to feel the sunshine while standing in the rain
(In the rain)
You try to hold me down with all your restrain

(Your restrain)(Verse 2)
Sunshines for suckers and queers
Thats what they told me when they rolled me in the carpet,
And through me over the bridge just like I was some garbage
Of course I was uncounsous not dead in the sense they thought I was
But a slug in your dome will get you caught up cuz
Im not invincible I could die a million times
Each time more painful than the first, Still I survive
Both hands are tide behind my back as Im breathing dirty water
And my legs are been mauled to death by the sewer rats
I move erratically to make them work for there meal
Im dislocating my shoulders I slip out just like banana peel
Im close to drowning again
Ten minutes and countin me to them is my record so i feel it like i'm ahead in points was the view from the west but it's all good
Best believe that your boy will be back to walk the neighborhood
In no time water logged and bullet ridden
They be like, I cant believe that he did it, He really escaped.(Hook)
I try to feel the sunshine while standing in the rain
(In the rain)
You try to hold me down with all your restrain
(Your restrain)
I try to feel the sunshine while standing in the rain
(In the rain)
You try to hold me down with all your restrain
(Your restrain)(Verse 2)
[Not too sure about these!]
Now I'm fuckin with some gangstas
Not no bitchass wangstas
But some real gangsta fed my legs into a woodchipper
But the blades got caught on my bones I woke up screaming
And noticed that my right foot and... leg was gone
My eye popped out the socket and dangling on the cheek
They must have strangled me to sleep cuz I'm unable to speak
Must have screamed just inside of my head
Cuz they still think that I'm dead
They usin a shovel to scrape away clumps of the red
From out the chipper they pop my legs out
So they can chop me up manual bag me up and throw me out
No sweat, give me a week and a roll of some duct tape
And a shovel to dig the rest of my body up and I'm straight(Hook)
I try to feel the sunshine while standing in the rain
(In the rain)
You try to hold me down with all your restrain

(Your restrain)
I try to feel the sunshine while standing in the rain
(In the rain)
You try to hold me down with all your restrain
(Your restrain)
[Till the end]
