

Loner

Ghost Town

Advisory - the following lyrics contain explicit language:

I've been workin' everyday
And all you wanna do is play
I see you giving me that look
I won't give into your ways If you keep going at this rate you'll probably waste away.
Won't take a superficial feeling cause that shits so fake. Not gonna go out with you... Tonight I feel like bein' loner.
Call me a loser.
But my nights not over. If you think that I need your addiction.
Don't need your permission.
To be on my own. I'm gonna say no!
This time I'm gonna lay low!
I won't let you control!
I feel like being alone! Another invite that I missed.
Too bad that I don't give a shit.
I'd rather stay home reading books.
While you're at clubs getting pissed. If you keep going at this rate you'll probably waste away.
Won't take a superficial feeling if that's what it takes. Not gonna go out with you... Tonight I feel like bein' loner.
Call me a loser.
But my nights not over. If you think that I need your addiction.
Don't need your permission.
To be on my own. I'm gonna say no!
This time I'm gonna lay low!
I won't let you control!
I feel like being alone! Not going to hang with you tonight.
Being alone just feels so right.
No other place I'd rather be.
If you're alone when you're with me! Tonight I feel like bein' loner.
Call me a loser.
But my nights not over. If you think that I need your addiction.
Don't need your permission.
To be on my own. I'm gonna say no!
This time I'm gonna lay low!

I won't let you control!
I feel like being alone! I won't let you control!
I feel like being alone!
