

Let Me Sleep

Laika

Let me sleep I'm through now
I'll just close my eyes
I know I didn't do it
It's too late to explainI'm tired, he's screaming
He knows where I've been
I was gonna say something
MaybeHe says I taste like rubber
I can't change his mind
He thinks he is right
He thinks I'm lyingI've heard stories like this
But not about me
I'm tired, he's screaming
He knows where I've beenLet me sleep I'm through now
I'll just close my eyes
I know I didn't do it
It's too late to explainI'm tired, he's screaming
He knows where I've been
I was gonna say something
Maybe
