She Darked The Sun
D G
It was not so long ago, maybe just a year or so
D E A
I was lonely and was looking for someone
D G
went down south to New Orleans, still just searching for my dreams
D A7 D
and that's when I saw her, that's how it all begun.
G DG
She was there on that night said For youI know I'm right.
G E A
I'll be with you, until my race is run
D G
She walked into my life with her cold evil eyes
D A7 D
With the length of her mind she darked the sunSOLOD G
Well my memory tries to speak, but, oh Lord, I'm feeling weak
and I blame it on the fact that I was young.
D G
Though I know it may sound strange, there is no way I can change
D A D
What my fate has picked out for me now is done.
G DG
She was there on that night said For youI know I'm right.
G E A
I'll be with you, until my race is run
D G
She walked into my life with her cold evil eyes
D A7 D
With the length of her mind she darked the sun and
D A7 D
With the length of her mind she darked the sun
