Nestle (Acoustic)

Far

And he always wrote and he always called
And he never lied 'cause he never said anything at allIn a world of dirt, I am rainin', I'm erodin'
But which one of us? In a chorus of maybe's
I realize, I realize, I realize, I realizeNestle, nestle, nestle, I won't ever let you goWhen I started this, I was thinking of my father
Now a holy ghost, now see one become the other
One become me, one become me
I realize, I realize, I realize
