Something To Believe In

You've been trying to get me open
Caught out in the open
Everyone is hoping you'd give
Anything to take this
Everything that breaks this
Everyone is faceless
Give me
Something to believe in
Quick or else I'm leaving
Need a better reason
I know
Things get complicated
So miseducated
It's a wonder that we made itSituation
A little speculation
What are we facing
Too much complications
Looking for a name
In a new generation
A new focus
New destinationI don't want to look
I just want to find
Gimme gimme something to believe in
Keep your religion, don't need your lies
I'm just looking for one good reason
Feel like it's teenage hunting season
But nothing out there sounds half decent
Who's out there? Who's going to save us
Before we all fall through the cracks in the pavementYou've been trying to get me open
Caught out in the open
Everyone is hoping
Give me
Something to believe in
Quick or else I'm leaving
Need a better reason
I knowI'm never gonna fall in line
So don't even bother wasting your time
I'm a breed of a different kind

Stand back just to invade your mindSituation
Under speculation
What are we facing?
Too much complications
Looking for a name
In a new generation
A new focus
New destinationI don't want to look
I just want to find
Gimme gimme something to believe in
Keep your religion, don't need your lies
I'm just looking for one good reason
Feel like it's teenage hunting season
But nothing out there sounds half decent
Who's out there? Who's going to save us
Before we all fall through the cracks in the pavementAnd if you don't know what I'm talking about
It's probably better cause I'm working out
Don't want to spend my lifetime figuring out
That I coulda just said one prayerAnd if you know what I'm talking about
Then together were both working it out
Don't want to spend my lifetime figuring out
I missed the point now it's over
I missed the point now it's over
I missed the point now it's over
I missed the point now it's over
I missed the point now it's over
I missed the point now it's over
