

Red, White and Blues

Jack Ingram

The skys lighting up and everybody's so high

Come take my hand its the fourth of July

God bless America and all of that shit

I should probably feel better but I feel I should quitSo raise a flag for the boys who've paid their dues

So I could be free here to live with these blues

No it doesn't seem right everybody's so high

And I'm crying the blues on the fourth of JulyTake a walk downtown it's a beautiful day

Smoke a cigarette, watch the parade

We'll sing God bless America and all of that stuff

I should probably feel better, I've had enoughSo raise a flag for the boys who've paid their dues

So I could be free here to live with these blues

No it doesn't seem right everybody's so high

And I'm crying the blues on the fourth of July

No it doesn't seem right everybody's so high
