Rumored Nights

The Academy Is...

I walked you home most days
To beat the traffic after class with all my best intentions
But when the weather changed like fine print you were hard to read
Blind folded, eyes wide open, staring through meI never heard the words that were spoken
With the rumored nights, with the rendezvous
I never thought the whispers were true till nowI saw things that I shouldnt have tonight, tonight
I know now what I couldnt have
Ive gone too far to turn it back
Ive gone too far to turn it backFollowed you home halfway
Over the fence to your backyard with all my best intentions
And through your window frame, outstretched and lying on your bed
Blind folded, eyes wide open, staring through meI never heard the words that were spoken
With the rumored nights, with the rendezvous
I never look at you like I used to nowI saw things that I shouldnt have tonight, tonight
I know now what I couldnt have
Ive gone too far to turn it back
Ive gone too far to turn it backUninvited, no one knows
How much I care, how bad you are
How good wed be but you wont let me in
Goodnight, Im leavingI never heard the words that were spoken
With the rumored nights, with the rendezvous
I never thought the whispers were true till nowI saw things that I shouldnt have tonight, tonight
I know now what I couldnt have
Ive gone too far to turn it backI saw things that I shouldnt have tonight, tonight
I know now what I couldnt have
Ive gone too far to turn it backI walked you home most days
I had the best intentions
I walked you home most days
I had the best intentions
I walked you home most days
