It's Alright

Useless ID

tune in and listen to what i have to say to you why be sorry when youre not dont you realize
theres no consolation prize when you payed all youve wonbut its alright
i wont let you down
but its alright
i wont let you down
but its alright
i wont let this fade awayshe will poison you again just to get her sweet revenge you believe its not what she is after you are not in love my friend save it for someone who cares things will never be the same between usbut its alright
i wont let you down
but its alright
i wont let you down
but its alright
i wont let this fade awaywhat do ya say..HEY!
writings on the wall
not so far away
i want you to pass
with you in anyway
how can we pretend
everythings ok
when we lost it alltune in and listen to
dont you realize
youre the consolation prize now youre getting all youve wonbut its alright
i wont let you down
but its alright
i wont let you down
but its alright
i wont let this fade awaywhat do ya say..HEY!

how can we pretend
when we lost it allsave the best times lose my trust along the way ill forget it
while you remember it that way dissapointment
thats what happens when you trade me in for one mistake
