Cause He Has One

Quadeca

Hate a motherfucker with a dream cuz he has one
Just because he gave up doesn't mean I'm a back up
Feel like all my good times get replaced by the bad ones
Yeah, they wanna hate a motherfucker with a dream cuz he has one
They wanna doubt a motherfucker with a dream?
Looking to the stars for some money and a skeem
Look at all the cars and the hundreds in a green
Serpents told you nothing is as it seems
Godamn, I guess I really though he was the man
I guess I really I thought he had some fans
But that shit is all a sham
All the cash he stocked was from a scam
All the views he got was from some spam
I've been living like man
Why he ain't doing what he can
Why he ain't just sticking to the plan
How's he been living with no limits, getting millions by the minute
I don't get it I don't really understand
I've been living like Bam
He ain't getting money by the gram
I'll do better if I study my exams
Do I really wanna stand , next to all these average fucking sad doves?
So I hate this motherfucker with a dream cuz he has one
Hate a motherfucker with a dream cuz he has one
Just because he gave up doesn't mean I'm a back up
Feel like all my good times get replaced by the bad ones
Hate a motherfucker with a dream cuz he - cuz he's been living this passion
I'm just gonna sit an imagine
I've got a bitch on my lap and she listen to rap
She really be digging my track
I'm like snap, that shit is invisible now
I'm a original now
I'm making minimum wage
Just like with aids I need to figure this out
How did I get to the stage?
I wanna get up on stage
Do this everyday and I'm not gonna care whatever they say
Let them all pester away
But I just can't shoot my shot, got a bad gun

So I hate this motherfucker with a dream cuz he has one
(fuck it , hate this motherfucker with a dream cuz he has one... yea)
