

Today, Tonight

Dishwalla

waiting for a train to catch waiting for the perfect match waiting for someone to make a call if only you had to make a change every day and every night as every hour goes Today, tonight tomorrow, the next night
too long too late till then I'll wait waiting for the plane to crash waiting how long can you stand and you hope it never ends
till then I'll wait
