

Pyjamarama (Live At the Apollo in Glasgow)

Roxy Music

Couldn't sleep a wink last night
Oh oh, how I'd love to hold you tight?
They say you have a secret life
Made sacrifice your key to paradise And never mind, take the world by storm
Just boogaloo a rhapsody divine
Take a sweet girl just like you
How nice if only we could bill and coo I may seem a fool to you for everything I say or think or do
How could I apologize for all those lies?
The world may keep us far apart but up in Heaven
Angel, you can have my heart Diamonds may be your best friend
But like laughter after tears
I'll follow you to the end
