Red London

Sham 69

London's streets are turning red
There's no democracy
I remember yesterday
We were all freeWhat are you gonna do
What are you gonna do
Free yourself from this
Individuals ruleTell me have they taken you
Put you in a cell
Will they let you free again
Or will you rot in hellKids all born into a life
They never know what's real
If we carry on this way
Then we will be the same
