Doin Fine

Rusty

You tried
Our lips touched and you blew my mind
We climbed to the top and you cut my line
We drove for miles
You look at me and I make you smile
The first time
You washed your truck and my heart flyed
If you had the time
you could have eased my mind
You left me in the night
I'm still wishin you were mine
You went East and you left me blind
I'm stuck here with all my guilt
And your still doin' fine
Time flies
You call me and you state your mind
I try to forget your face but it's on my mind
