Blue Sky

Leroy

You're the one that I call when I'm starting to fall, yes
You are my shelter, you are my helper
You're the only that really understands
But it's okay'Cause I got in you and you got in me
You make me feel safe everydayYou're like waking up with the blue sky
Riding on the wings of a butterfly
You're always giving me peace of mind
If God knows I'm losing mineYou're always getting me high when I'm feeling so low, oh yeah
You are my lover, you are my friend
I'll stick by you to the very end
But it's okay'Cause I got in you and you got in me
You make me feel safe everydayI got you like waking up with the blue sky
You're riding on the wings of a butterfly
You're always giving me peace of mind
'Cause God knows I'm losing mineYou're like waking up with the blue sky
Riding on the wings of a butterfly
You're always giving me peace of mind
'Cause God knows I'm losing mine, I'm losing mine nowYou're like waking up with the blue sky
You're riding on the wings of a butterfly
You're always giving me peace of mind
'Cause God knows I'm losing mineYou're like waking up with the blue sky
Riding on the wings of a butterfly
You're always giving me peace of mind
'Cause God knows I'm losing mineYou're like waking up with the blue sky
You're riding on the wings of a butterfly
You're always giving me peace of mind
'Cause God knows I'm losing mine
