Losing You

The Boxer Rebellion

I have no demonstration no forgiveness left to speak nothing I could even offer, nothing more than my defeat
I have a plan to leave this, all these things I occupy
I have a plan of problem no running thread to justify, no running thread to justify
I'm done, I'm done with losing everyone
And I'm done with losing you
The details of this city are obstacles I'd soon forget there's nothing here to keep me, there's nothing left here to regret, there's nothing left here to regret

I'm done, I'm done with losing everyone
And I'm done with losing you
I'm done, I'm done with losing everyone
And I'm done with losing you
This is it for me,
It had to be
I'm done, I'm done with losing everyone
And I'm done with losing you
I'm done, I'm done with losing everyone
And I'm done with losing you
