

That St. Valentine Is Such A Gossip

Big Sixes

I used to dream in black and white
But now it's technicolour
I used to bark but I wouldn't bite
But now the stress I'm under
You used to sing Hallelujah
Like it don't mean nothing to you
Did you have a good time? Now I don't have a leg to stand on
No face to put my hands on
No heart to fall in love with.
Still think I'd make a good job of it
Still looking to find the answers
And I think I just wasted my last chances on you
I'm a black cloud
you're an otherwise sunny day
It'll just never work
It'll just never work
I'm a black cloud
You're an otherwise sunny day
But I'm not bitter
I won't let you pitter patter away I used to dream in black and white
But now it's technicolour
I used to bark but I wouldn't bite
But now the stress I'm under
You used to sing Hallelujah
Like it don't mean nothing to you
Did you have a good time?
Now I don't have a leg to stand on
No face to put my hands on
No heart to fall in love with.
Still think I'd make a good job of it
Still looking to find the answers
And I think I just wasted my last chances on you I'm a black cloud
you're an otherwise sunny day
It'll just never work
It'll just never work
I'm a black cloud
You're an otherwise sunny day
But I'm not bitter
I won't let you pitter patter away But I'm not bitter, I won't let you pitter patter away

But I'm not bitter, I won't let you pitter patter away
Away it goes and I can't feel it anymore
I lost something good to me
I feel it in my bones
Away it goes the sunlight brushes over me
I can't feel it anymore
Guess that's how it goes
I'm a black cloud
you're an otherwise sunny day
It'll just never work
It'll just never work
I'm a black cloud
You're an otherwise sunny day
But I'm not bitter
I won't let you pitter patter away
But I'm not bitter, I won't let you pitter patter away
But I'm not bitter, I won't let you pitter patter away
