

Take What's Yours

Much The Same

I've come to far to let you take this from me, and I know it's for the best, it wasn't meant to be You can talk behind my back if that's what gets you by.
It's not hard to see the truth if you read between the lines. My patience has been slipping as our friendship fades away
And you will hear me say, "Take what's yours, but keep it far from me"
I've learned from my mistakes Wanted to see how far my dream would take me, While you manipulate your friends and think no one can see Heart will win over pride, how can you be so blind?
It's not hard to see the truth: it was such a waste of time My patience has been slipping as our friendship fades
away
And you will hear me say, "Take what's yours, but keep it far from me"
I've learned from my mistakes: People never change, people never change
