We are good for launch. Countdown management switch to systems
We are good for launch, over[Intro: Mike Hranica]
Radio check, go
Where shall we begin?[Verse 1: Mike Hranica]
Not long ago, a young girl knew what she wanted to be
So she trained and she learned to travel and explore the unknown galaxy[Chorus: Mike Hranica]
Elizabeth had a dream
Maybe like you, maybe like me
Mankind searched the universe
Curiosity can be a curse
Elizabeth had a dream
Maybe like you, maybe like me[Verse 2: Mike Hranica]
Exploration expanding
A dire mission withstanding
Far away a ship flew interplanetary
Elizabeth, the commander, she wasn't ready
For the malfunction, for the malfunction
The shuttle had been off
It was unprepared, it wasn't fit to fly
"Houston!" she screamed
"Houston, we've been breached!"[Bridge: Jeremy DePoyster & Mike Hranica]
There was a survivor, just one survivor, without anyone
Without anyone[Chorus: Mike Hranica]
Elizabeth had a dream
Maybe like you, maybe like me
Mankind searched the universe
Curiosity can be a curse
Elizabeth had a dream

Maybe like you, maybe like me[Outro: Mike Hranica]
A woman lives far away on an unknown planet called "A"
There was a survivor, just one survivor, without anyone
