

(I Believe In) Travellin' Light

Belle and Sebastian

Shimmering traveling light, echoing love at first sight
Glimmering, glistening, banishing the darkest night
Waiting for traveling light Though the sun has yet to appear
 Inkling faint perception is near
 Bloodied, battered in the dew
 Leaves and trees are calling you
Waiting for traveling light Shimmering, traveling by
 Magical waves just under the sky
 It knows no time, it knows no bounds
 Coming clear beneath the clouds
 Destination here and now
I behold traveling light Shimmering, traveling by
 Magical waves just under the sky
 She knows no time, she knows no bounds
 Waves of light are traveling
 Cloak of night unraveling
I believe in traveling light Shimmering, traveling light, echoing love at first sight
 Glimmering, glistening, I'll see her tomorrow night
Waiting for my traveling light Shimmering traveling light, echoing love at first sight
 Glimmering, glistening, banishing the darkest night
 Waiting for traveling light
 Though the sun has yet to appear
 Inkling faint perception is near
 Bloodied, battered in the dew
 Leaves and trees are calling you
Waiting for traveling light Shimmering, traveling by
 Magical waves just under the sky
 It knows no time, it knows no bounds
 Coming clear beneath the clouds
 Destination here and now
I behold traveling light Shimmering, traveling by
 Magical waves just under the sky
 She knows no time, she knows no bounds
 Waves of light are traveling
 Cloak of night unraveling
I believe in traveling light Shimmering, traveling light, echoing love at first sight
 Glimmering, glistening, I'll see her tomorrow night
 Waiting for my traveling light
